Course description: This course provides a solid foundation in the principals of yoga theory and practice. By incorporating traditional philosophy, physical poses (asana) and breath control (pranayama), this class helps you to discover vitality, flexibility, and strength within yourself. We will also identify, understand and cope with sources of stress and journey through several modalities that explore our response to stress and encourage yoga as an exercise/relaxation program. You will read a book of your choice. Submit and have approved by March 15, 2018. Example: Dan Millman's The Way of the Peaceful Warrior. You will write a 3-5 page reflection double-spaced reflection. The reflection is due by April 15, 2018. Upload the paper to Canvas and email to jbuergermeister@icloud.com.

Course objectives: Upon completion of the course, the student will have a better understanding of the negative effects of stress on the body and how relaxation techniques and yoga can tone, enhance, and harmonize the physical and emotional bodies to achieve homeostasis and well-being. Students will gain knowledge of the history and theory of yoga philosophy and practice. Ultimately, students will understand how to choose healthy methods of exercise and relaxation that can serve as antidotes to the negative effects of stress both in college and beyond graduation to be used as tools for life.

Attendance Policy:

The attendance policy for LPAP courses that meet twice a week will be as follows:

Students are expected to attend all class sessions and to actively participate while in attendance. During the course of the semester, students are allowed two "free" absences. Should a student miss an additional class(es) she/he will need to arrange to make up the missed class at a time and place that is agreed upon by both the student and the instructor. It is the responsibility of the student to initiate conversation with the instructor to discuss the makeup, and an agreement must be reached between the two within two weeks of the absence. If a student fails to make up a missed third or fourth class, his/her final grade will drop by one or two grade letters, respectively.

Please note, students will be allowed to make up two classes. Please join one of the other classes to make up the time lost in an absence after the two free class absences.
